A 12ft high wall could be built from New York City to Los Angeles with all of the office and writing paper thrown out in the United States each year.

What you can do:
Use both sides of your paper and encourage your parents to pay bills and bank online.